Arnold Dennis Sigesmund

THE DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE of the Benches of the Law Society, having conducted an inquiry pursuant to the Legal Professions Act and the Rules of the Law Society, found that Arnold Dennis Sigesmund, of Vancouver, B.C., was guilty of professional misconduct because of breaches of fiduciary duties through conflicts between his personal interests and his position as an independent solicitor in the purported assignment of mortgages.

In each assignment transaction the member relied upon his business associate in the vendor company, a mortgage broker, to register the assignment documents. The member paid the purchase moneys from trust without first ascertaining that the assignment in each transaction had been registered. The member and his business partner owned all shares in the vendor company, equally. None of the assignments were in fact registered.

On October 27, 1978, the Benches of the Law Society ordered that Arnold Dennis Sigesmund be disbarred.
